"ALIQUIPPA" SINKS WHILE MANEUVERING IN OHIO RIVER

Chambermaid, Watchman and Deckhand are Missing.

20 ARE RESCUED

Tragedy Caused by Break in Pipe Line, Belief.

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 30.—The steamboat Aliquippa overturned early this morning while maneuvering in the Ohio river. Three of the 23 persons aboard the river craft are believed missing while 20 were rescued or swam ashore.

The persons missing are: Christina Denlock, chambermaid on the boat.

William Atkins, watchman.

Unidentified deckhand.

The Aliquippa, which was a steel towing steamer, was maneuvering in mid-stream preparatory to picking up a tow of barges loaded with 6,000 tons of steel at the time of the accident.

A pipe break which flooded the forward compartment is believed by officers of the Aliquippa to have been the cause of the upset.

The accident occurred opposite the Aliquippa plant of the Jones & Laughlin Steel corporation. The steamer was one of the steel company's fleet of low steamers.

Fan regained as the boat careened sideways and tipped completely over, bottom up. Many of the crew swam madly for life preservers on the boat listed in the water. Captain Norman "Bucky" Jones with a few of his assistants attempted to arouse the two chambermaids. They succeeded in throwing a life preserver to one of them before the boat finally lurched.

Immediately following the upset rescue crews made their way to the overturned steamer in an effort to locate the three missing persons. Plant employees of the Jones & Laughlin corporation started to drag the river. Efforts were also being made to raise the capsized vessel by boring holes through the keel to admit air.

The Aliquippa, which holds the record for steel towing from Pittsburgh to Memphis, is 164 feet long with a beam of 32 feet.

AUTO HIT BY SWITCH ENGINE

Car Driven by Harry Anderson Damaged at Crossing.

One automobile was badly damaged by a switch engine and two others were less seriously damaged as they crashed into each other on the River road last night.

Harry Anderson, Walnut street, escaped injury when his new sedan was hit by a Pennsylvania switch engine at the Broadway and Second street grade crossing. Gates on the other side of the tracks were said to have been down when Anderson drove into the path of the engine which was moving slowly.

L. M. Thomas, Y. M. C. A., and Mr. Meador were unhurt when their car, traveling in opposite direction on the River road, collided. Captain Mason Conley investigated.

If War Vanishes Must Come from the Sky. Again: Don't Sell Short. Pain and Suffering.

By ARTHUR BRISBANE

(The opinions expressed in this column are strictly those of Mr. Brisbane and not necessarily in consonance with the policies of The Review.)

THAT pact outlawing war is signed, and, for the present, nations seem to take it seriously.

Suppose the improbable SHOULD happen, and all nations suddenly abandon war. What would happen?

EARTH'S population has been regulated by WAR, DISEASE, FAMINE. Machinery and better government have practically eliminated famine.

Science has almost eliminated the plagues that killed wholesale. No more "black death."

With war gone, what would prevent growth of population greater than the earth could sustain?

Divine wisdom, rulin' the earth, is probably able to solve that problem as it has taken care of others, including the most difficult, how to keep populations GROWING in spite of war, plague and famine.

CLERKS, leaning out of windows, looked upward; taxicab drivers leaned out, looked up, hundreds of thousands in New York City yesterday got their first good, long look at the sky in some time.

An airplane radio up in the clouds was broadcasting music. A voice from the sky having attracted attention, said at decent intervals: "There is not a cough in a carload."

WHAT would be said of that by Ruskin, who hated railroads because they spoiled the countryside?

We are not compelled to ride in railroad trains, but there is no escape from that statement about the carload of coughs.

Longfellow's prophecy, "The night shall be filled with music," is realized with "night" changed to day.

THIRTY-TWO American railroads report their July earnings showing an increase of 12.7 per cent net operating income.

If the railroads are not making money, the interstate commerce commission fixes it so that they can make money.

Farmers lack that advantage.

WITH railroad and other stocks increasing their earnings, even usury promoted by the Federal Reserve powers, establishing an interest rate of 8 per cent, is unable to discourage buyers.

United States Steel Tuesday went to a new high record, selling 119,800 shares, and other stocks kept soaring with it.

Once more, don't sell this country short. "It hath not yet been shown what he shall be," on the ticker and elsewhere.

THE REV. DR. AUER, who teaches philosophy at Tufts college, says men should not seek to avoid pain and suffering, but to understand both. That is better than the old theory that God actually wanted men to suffer.

WHEN anesthetics were first used. (Continued on Page 8, Column 5)

BLIMP'S TRIP HERE MAY BE HALTED AGAIN

Weather Conditions at Lakehurst Today "Unfavorable."

DUE AT 4:30 P. M.

"Los Angeles" Will Come to City From Steubenville.

With weather conditions on the Atlantic seaboard decidedly "unfavorable," scheduled flight of the dirigible, Los Angeles, to the Ohio Valley tomorrow, was clouded with uncertainty today.

In a telegram to local Chamber of Commerce at noon Commander Rosendahl of the big ship stated weather "conditions at present unfavorable." If the flight is made, the "silver whale" will reach here at 4:30 p. m. from Steubenville.

Proceeding from Uniontown, Pa., to Steubenville and thence to this city, the Los Angeles will probably spend about one hour cruising above the Chamber of Commerce airport in Madison township before leaving for Youngstown. The huge bag is scheduled to arrive in Youngstown at 3 o'clock.

The dirigible will fly over the city before proceeding to the aviation field. Although the Goodyear baby blimp, Puritan, which was to accompany the former ZR-3 on its postponed trip here a week ago, will not be with it this time, two airplanes will convey the dirigible from Steubenville.

At least 10 planes will make courtesy flights to the Madison township airport tomorrow from surrounding cities, local officials declared. The ships will come from Alliance, Akron, Youngstown, Steubenville, Beaver Falls, Pa., Ellwood City, Pa., and from two Pittsburgh airports.

Also three commercial planes will operate in passenger-carrying traffic. There will be a five-passenger Ryan monoplane powered with a whirlwind engine from Pittsburgh, two Travelair 2-passenger biplanes from New Castle, and a small Waco from Ellwood City, Pa.

Seventeenth plane to land at the East Liverpool field was an Eagle Rock ship flown here on a pleasure jaunt by three Akron men yesterday. The party returned to Akron at 6:30 o'clock.

MYSTIC HELD FOR GRAND JURY

Helen Stephens, 23, who was arrested when police found her living with the oriental in a West Sixth street boarding house, was ordered to return to her home in Mobile, Ala.

Wagananandi will be taken to Lisbon today to commence serving his sentence.

Other Democrats will be canvassed today, it was said.

TON OF FOOD IS DISTRIBUTED

Balance From Shriners Supper Given to Salvation Army.

Nearly a ton of untouched food stuff was given to the Salvation Army last night for distribution to East Liverpool's needy families by the local committee in charge of the tri-state Shrine ceremonial yesterday.

Major and Mrs. Joseph Hughes and other workers at the Army citadel worked until after midnight giving away thousands of ears of corn, thousands of buns and bushels of beans, potato salad, onion salad and other food left after the Shriners were dinied in Rock Springs park at the close of the ceremonial.

Much of the Shriners' gift remained to be distributed today, Major Hughes said.

Following the dinner served by Cleveland caterers in the Chester park, special trains returned to Pittsburgh, Wheeling and Cleveland with loads of Shriners from Syria, Ostris and Al Koran temples. Fourth special train bearing a Canton delegation of Al Koran left East Liverpool at 11 o'clock.

Members of the local committee headed by John Golden expressed appreciation today for the efficiency of police department's control of traffic yesterday and lauded the generous cooperation of local merchants and city officials.

SLAYER TO FACE TRIAL OCTOBER 8

CANTON, O., Aug. 30.—Clarence Shamblin, 25, is to be arraigned tomorrow and will go to trial Oct. 8 on a charge of first degree murder, it was announced today. Shamblin is alleged to have killed Patrolman Joseph Lauer during a gun battle which resulted when the policeman found him holding up a filling station, several months ago.

Shamblin was shot in the leg by Lauer and has been bedfast since that time. Prosecutor Henry W. Hartner, Jr., said today he would ask that the youth be sentenced to death. Dr. George S. Hackett said the prisoner had recovered sufficiently to appear in court.

TO CENTRALIZE AUTHORITY IN G. O. P. DRIVE

State Organizations Will Direct Own Campaigns This Fall.

FEW SPEECHES

Nominee Meets Party Leaders at Private Conferences.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—The principles upon which Herbert Hoover conducted his vast relief operations for the Belgians and directed the American food administration during the World war will be relied upon to build a Republican organization which will bring victory to the Hoover-Curtis ticket at the November polls, it was disclosed today.

The policy—called the Hoover policy by his aides—is described by them as one of centralized authority and decentralized responsibility.

The plan, in brief, is to make the national committee, functioning under the discerning eye of Hoover a purely administrative unit and place the major responsibility for the success of the campaign on state organizations.

The policy is credited to Hoover himself although in talks he has given praise to National Chairman Hubert Work for the plan of operations.

Throughout Hoover's administrative career, it was pointed out, he has made a practice of defining objectives and policies, setting the wheels into motion and then depending upon the cooperation of his organization to achieve results.

Hoover is supplying the "touch and go" to the organization in conferences being held here with eastern political leaders and officials of the national committee. Today he planned to receive William H. Hall, chairman of the Hoover-Curtis clubs of New York, and H. Edmund MacHold, state chairman, to discuss the New York situation and emphasize the responsibility which he wants them to assume.

This method of campaigning is declared to be the reason for a determined effort by the national committee to reduce its budget from $4,000,000 to as near $3,000,000 as possible.

Hoover personally made known this object of conferences of national committee division heads and approved it while disclaiming that he himself urged the economy plan.

Hoover also disclosed that it is likely that his speaking campaign will be limited to three or four set speeches before he starts up a swing to Palo Alto, Calif., where he will vote on November 6.

While it was said that he may change his plans in the future, it was indicated that he is strongly adverse to undertaking a wide tour of the nation and will conduct a mixed "front porch" and stumping campaign.

THIEF STEALS TYPEWRITER

After writing a business letter on his new portable typewriter at a restaurant yesterday, George E. Keller, real estate dealer, 108 East Sixth street, "stepped out" to the postoffice to mail the letter. When he returned about seven minutes later, someone had "stepped out" with the typewriter.

The machine was less than two months old and was finished in green enamel, Keller said. He offered to present the burglar with the black carrying case if he makes application. Keller reported the theft to police.

WILLIAM HENKE, AGED 64, DIES

ILL-FATED PLANE FLOWN BY LINDY

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—It was recalled today that Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh was forced down in the west in the same orange-colored Falcon which carried Mabel M. Merrill and Edwin Ronne, well-known flyers, to their death in a crash near Milford, Pa. On that occasion Lindbergh was reported to have put out the fire with a hand extinguisher. The plane was subsequently sent to the Buffalo plant of the Curtiss company for repairs. It was from Buffalo that Merrill and Ronne hopped off on their disastrous flight.

Explorers Overcome by Gas Found by Rescue Parties.

CAMBRIDGE, O., Aug. 30.—Benjamin and William Kissinger, brothers, were recovering in their home here today from the effects of being lost for nearly 30 hours in Old Orchard mine, near here, and rendered unconscious.

The men went to explore the mine Tuesday noon, according to their mother, Mrs. Eliza Kissinger, who spread the alarm when they failed to return in the evening. The mine had been abandoned for many years. The bodies were found about 3,000 feet from the entrance by rescuers.

State Mine Inspector Jerome Watson and deputy inspectors made two attempts before they were able to penetrate any distances into the interior, even though wearing masks, because of the heavy gas. The second attempt made late yesterday afternoon was successful in finding the men, who are miners.

"MUSIC MAKERS" AT BRIGHTON PARK

Radio critics are generous in their praise of George Williams and his Music Makers, who are booked to appear at Junction Park on the night of Friday, Sept. 7.

For instance the Cleveland Press recently printed the following:

"George Williams has a remarkable band. One of the finest, most pleasing bands in this section of the country, and perhaps any other."

The radio critics of the Cleveland News wrote:

"George Williams' Music Makers orchestra has one characteristic which pleases this critics greatly. Rhythm and melody are there, and not covered by funny effects. Williams' music is of the sort that sets shoulders swaying, and feet dancing, even when heard over the radio."

The Cleveland Plain Dealer was also enthusiastic in praising the band. It printed:

"George Williams and his orchestra continue to play such dance music that would force even cripples to go up and dance some sort of a shuffle. Williams has shown also that he can offer entertainment as well as dance music just as Lombardo and Wylie have done."

After 50 years as minister of Glen-corse Parish, Rev. William Baillie Strong, of Dalkeith, Scotland, has just resigned.

International Society makes the Blindfold Test

MILLICENT, Duchess of Sutherland chooses OLD GOLD

WHILE having tea with several American friends, someone suggested that we try the blindfold cigarette test, now so popular in America. I volunteered as the subject, and while blindfolded, smoked the four different cigarettes . . . each brand making its appeal "incognito." Without the least hesitation, I named Cigarette Number 3 as the best—and it proved to be an OLD GOLD. I am not at all clairvoyant, nor am I a particularly good guesser. I identified my favorite OLD GOLD, because its delightful smoothness and coolness immediately distinguished it from the other brands.

What is this quality that tells?

OLD GOLD's honey-like smoothness . . . that's the net of it. But this cool and fragrant charm can come only from the heart-leaves of the tobacco plant. No heavy, coarse top-leaves . . . no withered ground-leaves. That's why OLD GOLDs are different, better . . . why you can pick them.

Attacks On Candidates

Since their nominations we have come upon many utterances regarding the presidential candidates of the two old parties, not none to our mind has been so aptly put or pleased us more than that of Governor Fred W. Green, of Michigan, a Republican leader and a staunch Hoover champion, made at a banquet in Muskegon, one day last week, given in connection with the dedication of the Muskegon state park and scenic highway.

"This is a remarkable country," the governor said. "Just think of a poor orphan boy out in Iowa becoming the candidate for president on the Republican ticket. And it is no more remarkable than that a boy from the east side of New York today stands as the candidate for the Democrats. And I say to you, shame on any man who raises his voice to attack these men."

No doubt the governor's words were intended as a slap at William Allen White and Dr. John Roach Straton, the latter of New York, whose recent attacks on Governor Alfred E. Smith, the presidential nominee of Democracy, have been given wide publicity, but they may well be applied to any and all who permit partisan bias or denominational zeal to lead them into words of abuse, if not of calumny.

It has been made plain by the two candidates that they are above any such tendency as has been manifested in this regard, and that they propose to conduct their campaigns along elevated lines. All who know them, either through their well-established reputations or more intimately through personal acquaintance realize that nothing could be more foreign to their wishes and desires than that the present campaign should be given to personal abuse and descend to the methods of blackguardism which have marked some campaigns in the past. Both the candidates are high-class, Christian gentlemen, either of whom has far more at stake than any of his party followers. It is their wish that the campaign be conducted on a high level, and their wishes in this respect should meet with the compliance of their supporters.

Let us hope that the Whites and the Stratons and other like them, give to attacks on either candidate, will take a lesson from the tone manifested throughout the admirable acceptance speech of Candidate Hoover, last Saturday, and forego utterances of private opinion calculated to reflect upon candidates and do injury to their candidacies.

Germany Launches Two Liners

The launching of two great 46,000-ton fast liners, the Europa at Hamburg by Ambassador Jacob C. Schuman and the Bremen at Bremen by President Van Hinderburg, made the present week an epochal one in the history of the German merchant marine, and nothing like such enthusiasm as that reported to have been shown over the two launchings has been manifested in German marine circles since the launching of the Vaterland, now the Leviathan of the United States lines.

For ten years Germany has been restricted in her shipbuilding by the terms of the Versailles treaty. The two launchings mark the expiration of her obligation and signalize her bid to regain the proud place she once held in the shipping world. Up to the present, the 22,354-ton Columbus, an eight-day boat, was the largest addition Germany has made to her merchant fleet since the World war.

Each of the two new liners, which are of equal size and tonnage, is capable of carrying 3,200 passengers. Equipped with four propellers and splendidly powered, it is expected that they will be able to make the run between Bremen and New York in six days when they are put into service next spring, which means that they are of high speed as the distance from New York to Bremen is 580 miles greater than the distance from New York to Cherbourg and 463 miles greater than the run to Southampton, either of the latter two runs taking six days on the big boats.

The manner in which the North German Lloyd line has come back during the German reconstruction period has been the wonder of the shipping world. With these new liners added, which will increase its tonnage almost 100,000 tons, its future strides toward the recovery of the position it once held in world shipping will probably be even more marked, and it is not at all unlikely that the next few years will see still other giant units added to its fleet.

Reports from Berlin say that the press of Germany regards the prominent part taken by the American ambassador in the launching of the Europa as "a particularly happy augury." Certainly the press of the United States should take this evidence of restored friendship between one-time friendly governments, which later became enemies, in the same light.

The police of Lisieux, France, are holding two Americans on the charge of having robbed a drunken British nobleman. There is this, at least, to support the charge; some Americans will steal if they get the chance and some British noblemen will get drunk under the same condition, but Americans who leave this country to go to France to commit robbery shouldn't experience much difficulty in establishing an insanity defense.

Several of the larger department stores in Mobile have placed placards warning employees against the discussion of politics during business hours. It has been explained by the managements that arguments over the merits of the two old party candidates have grown warm, leading to bad feeling. Think of a situation like that in the solid south ten or twenty years ago!

The Osservatore Romano criticizes the world's mad race for sporting championships, as exemplified by the Olympic games, holding that such athletics develop the few at the expense of the development of the many, in which criticism it must be admitted that there is merit. Sports in which the few engage while the thousands look on do not work for the best in the physical development of a people.

Madame Halide Edib, Turkish feminist, told the Westminster Institute of Politics that the women of Turkey ruled the land as well as their homes and husbands, which goes to show, once more, this old life we are living is pretty much the same the world over.

HASKIN DAILY LETTER

By Frederick J. Haskin

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 30.—Not so long ago caricaturists with a whimsical turn of mind occasionally drew pictures depicting a future when the automobile would be almost as passe as the horse is now and when business men would be going to their offices in airplanes and soaring through the air for pleasure on holidays. Now that the United States government has done so much to encourage aviation, the visionary dreams of a relatively short time ago have come true. Congress has created the position of assistant secretary of commerce in charge of flying and the war and navy departments are active in the field. The post office department likewise fosters aviation by letting contracts for air mail lines.

Ta in the hands of the department of commerce show an amazing increase in private flying. It was a matter of course that the military branches of the government would pursue the science and that there should be air mail development but not nearly so certain that private flying should develop as it has. It is estimated that there has been an increase of something like five hundred per cent in the amount of private flying in the last two years. Furthermore, the various aviation schools, which for long had practically no students save those desiring to become professionals in the air mail service or in some commercial capacity, now show a majority of students studying the science merely to enable them to use planes for private use.

One large reason for this is that the price of planes has been steadily dropping for some time. Another is that airplane engines have become more reliable and there is less peril in mounting into the air. A third one is that, in the last year, trans-Atlantic and other long distance flights have so electrified the public that there has been a strong urge to take to the clouds.

Nowadays a good plane can be purchased for as little as the price of a good automobile. Two thousand five hundred dollars will buy a serviceable plane. Ten thousand or more can be paid for machines with special motors and de luxe cabins. The same, of course, is true of automobiles. Specially built models cost a multiple of the price of stock cars but good cars can be bought at a figure within the reach of the average American.

The time in which one uses an airplane is much less than that in which one uses an automobile. One gets there so much quicker. Experience is that a hundred hours' flying time is about all the average flier will use in the course of a year. As the stock models on general sale are built to fly for a thousand hours it will be seen that a plane has a theoretical useful lifetime of ten years.

More planes probably can be seen as a matter of course around Washington and the Long Island fields than anywhere else in this country. No day passes at Washington, in fact scarcely an hour save in very bad weather, when a number of planes can not be observed over the capital city. Many of them are military planes but not all. In fact already there is a private air taxi service operating here. On fine days planes are constantly in sight over Long Island.

Private use of airplanes has advanced far enough so that the airplane garage business is well patronized. Charges for garage service run from $40 to $50 a month during the active flying season. Fed persons except professional pilots care to do much flying in the winter so planes are put in dead storage until spring. As this requires no personal service on the part of air garage men, such storage is obtainable at as low as $20 a month.

Except in cases of crashes, an airplane requires few repairs. The schools which have turned out students who have mastered the science well enough to obtain pilots' licenses from the department of commerce find that the air enthusiast usually is so much interested in his machine that he takes excellent care of it. As he learns how to work the controls, he also absorbs expert mechanical knowledge and frequently is able to make all the repairs his plane requires. However, it is recommended that airplane engines be overhauled about twice a year on general principles.

Private flying in England and, indeed in Europe generally, is much more advanced than it is here. Even before the war some adventurous persons took to the air for sport or for business travel. The end of the war brought impetus to such flying and now there are many schools, all busy with students, and airplane manufacturers are doing good business. Miss Tmella Earhart, it will be recalled, the first woman to fly the Atlantic, bought a dainty little plane of what is known as the moth type, while in England.

Still another reason for the increase in private flying is the establishment of many airports. Many American cities now have them. This facility makes a lot of difference. Professional pilots, stunt fliers, and the like, can pick out most any open space and be able to land safely but the amateur usually is not so sure of himself. With a specially arranged airport ready to welcome him at so many cities, air travel becomes simpler.

NEW YORK Day By Day

By O. O. McIntyre.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 30.—This is not only one of the most amazing cities in America, but the "freakiest." It attracts the long-haired, the unwashed and the unshod as trade attracts flies. A benign silver-haired salvationist in sandals accosted me in Pershing Square this morning.

"Brother," he ventured, "what have you done to make the world happier this glorious day?" I coughed apologetically behind my hand to hide the mounting blush. Frankly I could think of nothing. He handed me a tract and moved on, wagging his head. Another unctious gentleman who constantly soaped his hands called to me. "These curious complexities are what ineluctably 'secretary of peace'."

These curious complexities are what make Los Angeles fascinating to me. Its radio blather from health cults, its experimentalists and Pollyanna psychologists has marked it as the cradle of Babbity—a haven for nuts. And yet in many ways it is more cosmopolitan and worldly than New York.

Without apparent effort, it forces ahead with the certainty of a sure-footed mountain goat. Remain away a year and you return to find almost another city. It sprawls over an area larger than that of London—an area constantly tearing down and building up.

No stranger can visit Los Angeles without warming to its hospitality. It has learned the value of the friendly overture more than any other city perhaps on the face of the globe. And those who have the idea Los Angeles, like Topsy, "just grewed," are sadly mistaken.

No other city has faced more obstacles or overcome them. In the beginning the sole asset was its vastness of sunshine—valuable no doubt, but thousands of spots in America with wonderful climate remain dreary and desolate waste places.

The faith of Los Angeles in its destiny is boundless. And this enthusiasm is contagious. I know dozens of cynical Broadwayites, whose heaven stretched between Columbus Circle and Herald Square, transplanted here by the movies. A year and they are wild-eyed and rampant "boosters."

Palmists, table tipplers, phrenologists, clairvoyants and sundry physical and spiritual rejuvenators swarm here. It is a paradise for quack religionists and quack medical practitioners. On the beautiful boulevards will be seen rose-hanging arborgs leading up to picturesque cottages of crystal gazers, card reading and coffee-ground fortune tellers and other seers. On their well-kept lawns are signs with "Don't Worry" slogans traced in neon lights. And I am told they do a land office business.

Recording all this mystic abracadabra is not a gesture to laugh at Los Angeles. Far from it. To me it is a shibboleth of tolerance—the sort of tolerance that has given Paris, Constantinople and Vienna their color and made them among the most interesting cities in the world. It is merely a "side show" and has nothing to do with fundamental civic and commercial virtues responsible for the city's astounding growth. Even the Los Angeles smiles at the array of fakery—just as the New Yorker smiles at its flea circus, wax museums, cheap Coney Island thrills and sucker night clubs.

The ice cream wagon reaches the apotheosis of grandeur here. Last evening on Wilshire Boulevard—the Fifth Avenue of the west—was a cream-colored wagon drawn by two milk-colored cobbied horses and on either side of the wagon the name of the product was traced in delicate or angel lights. The driver wore a white velvet suit and cap and was as black as the ace of spades—thus creating the effect of a stick of licorice in a bowl of ice cream.

Harry Ricketts, my chauffeur, who has never been west of Albany, hid under a train seat from Indians all the way after passing Gary, Ind., and now after three days in California, intimates he might not return East. "You can have your New York," he said ailing.

Los Angeles gives its visitors innumerable souvenirs. It almost requires a basket for an ordinary walk. This morning a lady approached with a bundle while I backed away coyly and gently slapping at her. It developed she merely wanted her baby held while she tied her shoe.

YOUR HEALTH

An Ounce of Prevention Is Worth A Pound of Cure.

By Dr. Royal S. Copeland.

A public man, still in his youth, was found dead in his bed. A stomach ulcer had corroded a blood vessel, permitting quantities of blood to flow into the stomach. The poor man bled to death. Two or three years ago an American friend of mine died in London from the rupture of the arteries due to an ulcer. From similar causes these two acquaintances passed away within a few months of each other.

What can be done to avert so tragic a death?

If you ever had a canker sore you know how odious a thing it is. In spite of mouth washes, local applications and even a burning of the surface. It goes on and on, refusing to heal.

You can imagine how difficult it is to deal with a canker sore attacking the surface of the stomach, or the lining of the intestines. The walls of these organs are in constant motion during digestion. This prevents the healing processes from doing their work of repair.

The result is that the tiny sore spreads and grows deeper. It becomes an ulcer of consequence and, unless successfully dealt with, it may produce serious results. There are comparatively few cases which end so unfortunately as in the two cases I have mentioned. But whether small or large, any ulcer attacking the mucous lining of the body is uncomfortable and may prove serious. What can be done to prevent their development? Certainly, prevention is more important than to wait until they have actually arrived.

Ritzy Rosalie

The ensemble idea is being carried out in printed silks. Bags and ties, scarves and sunshades, and entire outfits of the same design in silk are seen. Matching scarf and boutonniere is another combination, which Rosalie is wearing. This scarf is made of two joined squares. Rosalie's scarf is held by one of the new scarf rings, which are worn with a finger ring to match. Of heavy design with triangular stone, they are exceedingly modernistic. The stones vary, although most usually are set in marcasite.

Chautauqua Backers O.K. Next Year's Plans

Eighty Sponsors Sign "Roll" to Guarantee Appearance of Redpath Entertainers Here in 1929.

The 1929 appearance of the Redpath chautauqua with a program which officials promise will be an improvement even over this year's entertainment, was assured last night at a meeting of guarantors and officials following the closing performance of the six-day schedule.

Signatures of 80 guarantors were obtained to insure a 1929 chautauqua. While this year's chautauqua, from the standpoint of finance, was not successful, the results of next season's will be guaranteed beforehand, local sponsors announce, as a result of immediate organization.

At last night's session, C. J. Berg was named president of the campaign organization for next year; S. E. Daw, vice president; Mrs. Everett Kessell, treasurer, and Fred Eckfeld, secretary and ticket chairman.

This group of officers, together with a number of aides, will start organization work far in advance of the next appearance of the chautauqua.

WAIT APPROVAL OF NEW BRIDGE

Toronto Span Sponsors Hope to Begin Work Soon.

The new Toronto to New Cumberland bridge over the Ohio river at Spring street will be built by the Nashville Bridge company, of Nashville, Tennessee, at a cost of approximately $1,250,000, and will be one of the most modern and most sturdy of all bridges in the United States.

A marked improvement over the original plans for the bridge is seen since the New Cumberland Bridge company assigned its rights and interests to the Nashville company. It will be much longer, approximately 3,000 feet in length, will be of sturdy suspension type with a 700-foot middle span, and in addition to the foot passenger section will have a clear vehicular roadway of from 20 to 24 feet.

Only the approval of the federal department of war remains as a barrier to actual construction on the bridge, O. D. Matten, an official of the Nashville Bridge company, says.

Papers had already been sent, or would be within the next day, to the war department certifying that the franchise had been granted by the city, the bill passed by both senate and house of representatives and signed by President Coolidge, and that all preliminary work and blue print plans on the bridge had been completed, when Mr. Matten came to Toronto.

That the department of war would not tarry long in its investigation of the bridge was the belief of Mr. Matten, who said the department usually set a date for hearing within ten to 30 days from reception of the final papers.

The department's approval of the bridge and the first actual construction, in fact, are expected by Mr. Matten within the next two months.

Very likely the department will set a date for the hearing in Toronto and will send its commissioners here, though Mr. Matten explains that the actual hearing may not even be held by the commissioners. The only protesters expected at the hearing are ferry operators, who usually take such action in that bridges naturally interfere with their livelihood.

Spring street is the only site considered, Mr. Matten assures.

From 12 to 18 months' time will be required to complete the bridge, depending upon the weather conditions, and with the first work done within two months and the cement on the river piers built to a point over the high water level before winter sets in, the bridge is to be completed by the fall of 1929.

HOT SPRINGS SET FOR NOTICE CEREMONIES

Senator Robinson to be Told of His Nomination Tonight.

FIRST SOUTHERNER

Mrs. John B. Warner to Represent Father at Celebration.

By Lawrence Sullivan.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Aug. 30.—In a ceremony marking a new epoch in the political history of the south, Senator Joseph T. Robinson of Arkansas, tonight will be formally notified of his selection as the running mate of Governor "Al" Smith.

The notification will be in a picturesque natural amphitheatre formed by the parallel ranges in the southern tip of the Ozarks which form the valley of Hot Springs' main street. Squared in the bottom of the valley, from a vast platform of redolent Arkansas pine, Senator Robinson will deliver his acceptance speech. It is to be the keynote of the campaign in the solid south.

Never before has Arkansas given a candidate to the national ticket of a major party. Not since 1856 has the south had a representative on a national ballot.

This is the history behind the enthusiasm of the day. Arkansas is here to honor her most distinguished favorite son. Hot Springs has outdone itself as a town of 25,000 people sons to pay tribute to the "Joe" she sent to congress in 1902. The south is here to honor the statesman who won for her a place in the national theater of politics after a dark house of almost seventy years.

Over the speakers' platform, about which seats have been arranged for 25,000, hangs twin lithographs of "Al" and "Joe," but elsewhere throughout the city the dominating countenance is that of the vice presidential nominee.

Governor Smith will not be here for the notification of his running mate, but has designated his eldest daughter, Mrs. John B. Warner as his personal emissary. John J. Raskob, chairman of the Democratic national committee, who will preside at the ceremonies tonight, was scheduled to arrive from St. Louis shortly before noon. With him were Senator Peter G. Gerry of Rhode Island, chairman of the national advisory committee, Mrs. Nellie Taylor Ross, former governor of Wyoming and vice-chairman of the national committee, and Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, chairman of the woman's advisory committee. National committeemen, state chairmen, and rank and file representatives of the Democracy of the entire nation added to the throngs.

You cannot be attractive without a clear skin

EVERYBODY wants to be attractive. It is a great and just ambition. But no one can be attractive without a clear skin—you know that.

Do you realize the importance of pure, rich blood in preserving the health, and that the source of most skin disorders is in the blood?

Remove the cause, which is not in the skin itself, and pimples, boils, eczema and that sallow complexion will disappear.

You may have tried many things without relief. Why not try S.S.S.?

S.S.S. is extracted from the fresh roots of medicinal plants and herbs, and gives to Nature what she needs in building you up so that your system throws off the cause.

For more than 100 years S.S.S. has been giving relief in thousands of cases, as testified to in unsolicited letters of gratitude.

"S.S.S. cleared my skin of pimples and blackheads. I think it a most wonderful blood medicine. Several of my friends are taking it for the same reason I did."—Miss Margaret Frye, Lapel, Ind.

Standard Warranty
for Pneumatic Casings and Tubes

Every pneumatic tire of our manufacture bearing our name and serial number is warranted against defects in material and workmanship during the life of the tire. If any defect is found, we will repair the tire or refund a reasonable allowance on the purchase of a new tire.

Look for this Warranty at your local dealer's service station.

THIS announcement, issued simultaneously in all parts of the country on August 16, met with an instant response from car owners and tire merchants alike.

No man who reads this will have failed to see similar announcements in the windows of tire stores—copies of the warranty displayed on dealers' walls—newspaper advertisements by individual manufacturers and by dealers confirming the policy.

For it is the voice of the industry, representing the producers of over 95% of the tires made in America.

It is the acceptance of full responsibility for the merit of their product by manufacturers who have learned that real quality means more to their customers than definite mileage guarantees.

Years ago these standard manufacturers discontinued the outworn practice of guaranteeing a definite number of miles in order to sell their tires.

As a selling inducement the so-called "mileage guarantee" was inevitably pushed beyond all reasonable bounds. It resulted in unjustified allowances to the unscrupulous driver who abused his tires and misrepresented his mileage, thus penalizing the careful driver who took care of his tires. I was honest in his claims.

With its passing, all tire users the benefit at once in lower tire costs. Today you pay less for tires than ever before in history. Few, if any commodities, show so steady a reduction in prices.

The art of tire building has improved as well, until the casing and tube you buy today can be counted on to carry you more miles than was thought possible even so short a time as five years ago.

The unlimited guarantee of quality is the natural outcome; the warranty against defects for the life of the tire is a final expression of the manufacturer's confidence in his product—

—a guarantee broader in its protection to the individual yet fairer in its operation to all than anything ever offered to the car-owning public.

TORNADO HITS ITALIAN TOWN

Nine Killed, 140 Injured at Monza, Italy.

MONZA, Italy, Aug. 30.—A terrific tornado which tore a path through this city today took a toll of nine dead and 140 injured and caused tremendous property damage.

The tornado lasted for 15 minutes. Trees were uprooted, houses were unroofed, chimneys toppled. Streets were flooded as water poured forth from pipes torn asunder by the storm. Hail stones, some as large as walnuts, added to the plight of the stricken populace.

A church spire weighing a hundred tons toppled to the ground under the impact of the wind. A fifty-ton statue in the spire crashed through the roof of the church. Fortunately, no one was in the church at the time and there were no casualties there.

Three thousand birds were found dead after the storm had subsided.

Burned Wreckage of Missing Plane Found

Two Fliers Believed to Have Perished When Craft Crashed Into Mountain Side Near Milford, Pa.

By James L. Kilgallen.
NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—Mazel M. ("Merry") Merrill and Edwin Ronne, lost fliers, met a fiery death when the gas tank of their Orangethru Falcon plane exploded as they were flying at a speed of 160 miles an hour near Milford, Pa., where the tragedy occurred, in the opinion expressed today by C. S. ("Casey") Jones, noted pilot who is leading the search for the bodies. Jones is now at the scene. "I believe Merrill drove into the side of a mountain at top speed," said Jones this morning. "It must have been so foggy he was just flying by instinct. The gas tank must have let go and set the ship afire."

"Merrill and Ronne were done for—I doubt if we'll find much left to identify them."

The charred and wrecked plane in which Merrill and Ronne had been riding, a machine built for Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh, was located from the air late yesterday by pilots and observers in a formation of three planes headed by Jones as they were zigzagging across the valley near Milford which is the boundary between Pennsylvania and New York.

Full 50 airplanes had joined in the search for the fliers who had been missing since 4:10 o'clock Monday afternoon when they departed from Buffalo for the Curtiss flying field, near Mineola, N. Y.

The bodies were not sighted, as first reported, but the searchers were certain that they would be found somewhere in the vicinity.

Merrill, one of the best known of American aviators and a chum of Lindbergh, and Ronne had frequently made the air trip from Buffalo to New York and Jones, as well as other fliers, are of the opinion they must have got caught in a dense fog while over the flat ridge of the Kittiny mountains in the Pond Eddy section near Milford.

The wrecked plane was sighted by J. Nelson Kelly, one of the many fliers engaged in the intensive search. Last evening's darkness descended before Casey Jones and a party of fliers and farmers could penetrate the foggy and wooded mountainside to reach the wreckage.

The bodies of Merrill and Ronne, were found in the woods near Milford, Pa., where their plane crashed while en route from Buffalo to New York.

Both bodies were lying about 40 feet from the Falcon plane which had smashed into a thick underbrush. Neither body was burned. It is believed the aviators were hurled clear of the plane by the impact.

News of the finding of the bodies was conveyed to the Merrill home in Hempstead, L. I., shortly before noon by C. S. ("Casey") Jones, head of Curtiss field, who had been at Milford directing the search for the bodies.

The charred wreckage of the plane was found in a thickly wooded spot near Milford late yesterday after a long search in which at least fifty airplanes took part. Search for the bodies had been deferred until this morning.

Latest returns indicated the nomination of Republican incumbents to congress in eleven congressional districts.

TURNER STUDIES EXPENSE PAPERS

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 30.—Behind closed doors, Attorney General Edward C. Turner today was at work investigating campaign expense accounts filed by various campaign committees and by candidates for state offices with Secretary of State Clarence J. Brown.

Turner was carefully examining these expense accounts with a view to determining whether there has been any substantial violation of the state's corrupt practices act.

Although it was indicated today at the attorney's general's office that Turner has "hit some pay dirt" in connection with this probe which was launched yesterday, Turner had no comment for publication at this time, it was stated.

HALT FIRING ON PLEASURE BOATS

Activities of Rum Chasers to be Checked.

TOLEDO, O., Aug. 30.—Promiscuous firing upon pleasure craft on Lake Erie by coast guard boats in the future will be entirely eliminated, it was promised here today by Lieutenant M. W. Rasmussen, commanding of the patrol in this district, following an investigation yesterday.

Lieut. Rasmussen is continuing his investigation today among the various islands in the western portion of Lake Erie, where shells from coast guard boat guns are said to have landed.

Lieut. Rasmussen also went so far as to declare that he has a plan, which he would announce in the near future, whereby pleasure craft would not even be hailed by the patrol boats.

The hearing of evidence pertaining to the stopping and firing on private yachts was opened by charges preferred by Walter S. Hayes, Toledo manufacturer, to the effect that his craft was fired on Aug. 9, by the CG-2365 in command of Machinist Mate Vaughn W. Mumford.

SEEK FRIENDS WATER VICTIM

AKRON, Aug. 30.—Authorities here were seeking further information today concerning Michael Heitzer, 43, whose home is believed to be in Pennsylvania, and who drowned while swimming in Brady lake late yesterday.

Heitzer and his wife and two small daughters are said to have been visiting at Talmadge, near here. The father and two children were bathing in the lake and the children had joined their mother on the beach when Heitzer was seized with cramps, according to reports. The coroner said the mother and children were found weeping and had evidently been so distraught that they failed to summon a life guard from further down the beach, for some time. The body was recovered.

Australia's population now is estimated to be more than 6,000,000.

CORONER HOLDS AGED LABORER

Bellefontaine Man Killed While Acting Role of Peacemaker.

BELLEFONTAINE, O., Aug. 30.—A coroner's inquest was to convene today to probe circumstances surrounding the death of M. E. Russell, 40, formerly of New Palestine, Ind., who was slain here last night during an altercation with Walter Warwick, 70, negro laborer.

Russell, who was estranged from his wife, became intoxicated last night and visited his wife's home here with the intention of effecting a reconciliation, police say. When no response was made to his efforts to gain admittance to the house, he made his way to the home of Warwick, directly in the rear of that of his wife, and demanded to know the whereabouts of his wife.

Warwick ordered the man from the house and when Russell again returned attempted to pacify him, police report, but Russell became enraged and threatened to kill Warwick.

When Russell made a motion toward his hip pocket, Warwick snatched up a barrel stave and struck Russell on the head, inflicting injuries which proved fatal, he told police. Warwick surrendered to police and was held pending the outcome of the inquest.

MINERS VIOLATE INJUNCTION

STUEBENVILLE, O., Aug. 30.—Warrants for the arrest of James Kelly, James Powell, Dan McLauren and John Palmer, all residing in the Bellefonte mining district, were issued here today by U. S. Commissioner C. J. Borkowski, charging them with violating terms of a federal injunction by interfering with miners attempting to enter the Monroe Coal company mine near Shadyside, O., Belmont county.

Deputy marshals were sent from here today to bring in the men. There has been considerable heckling of non-union miners and bombing of homes of miners in the Shadyside district, Commissioner Borkowski stated, although at present the perpetrators of the bombings are not known.

COUNCILMAN TO CONTINUE PROBE

Akron Man Not Frightened by Threatening Letters.

AKRON, Aug. 30.—Gangland is still determined to "get" Councilman Kyle Ross, special investigator of vice and crime conditions here.

Ross made this known today. One of his "undercover" men has advised him, he says, that unless he "keeps his mouth shut" attempts to assassinate him, which have been made repeatedly, will continue. Four other city councilmen have been appointed to assist him in his investigation.

"I still feel that I should be permitted to prosecute this case unhampered by men who refused to come to my aid when I started this investigation less than a month ago," the militant councilman declared. "But I will give them a chance to carry on with me."

Poss said he was pleased at city council's action in appropriating funds to hire Ora Slater, veteran Cincinnati detective, to assist in running down the thugs who have tried to assassinate him. He said he would insist, however, that Ed McDonnell, Akron detective chief, be permitted to remain in charge.

"I regard McDonnell as a detective of unexcelled ability," Ross asserted.

LEAGUE OPENS 51ST SESSION

GENEVA, Aug. 30.—The fifty-first session of the League of Nations council opened today with the Finnish foreign minister, Hjalmar J. Procope, presiding.

The opening of the session was marked by the absence of Foreign Secretary Chamberlain, of Great Britain, Foreign Minister Briand, of France, and Foreign Minister Stresemann, of Germany.

The ninth league assembly opens Monday. Thirty-eight subjects on the council agenda must be disposed of before that time. As president of the council, Foreign Minister Procope will act as temporary president of the assembly.

SENTENCING OF WOMAN DELAYED

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Aug. 30.—Mrs. Florence E. S. Knapp, former secretary of state in New York, may not be able to appear in court in Albany for sentencing next Tuesday, surgeons reports indicate today.

Mrs. Knapp is under the care of her close friend, Mrs. Sydney Kelly, of the Leavenworth apartments here. The condition of the state's first woman secretary of state has taken a turn for the worse, necessitating a delay of a polite operation which she was to undergo before going to Albany.

Woman Drowns in Well.
CANTON, O., Aug. 30.—Miss Rose Wagner, 50, was drowned today when she fell or jumped into a well at the rear of his sister's home at Navarre, near here. The body was found by the sister after Miss Wagner had been missing for more than an hour. The spinster made her home with her sister and, according to reports, has been in ill health recently.

TODAY

the clergy of Britain denounced them as interfering with God's wishes.

God wishes us to suffer when we have our legs cut off, and men must not interfere with His plans by using chloroform, thus cheating the Lord, said the preachers.

An ingenious doctor answered, to the confusion of clergymen, quoting the book of Genesis, asserting that the Lord was the one to use anesthetics when He "caused a deep sleep to fall upon Adam" before removing one of Adam's ribs to make Eve.

Men should understand pain and suffering, of course, as the Reverend Philosopher Auer says. But they should also concentrate on eliminating both, by scientific means, and especially by abolishing poverty.

THE best thing in Herbert Hoover's speech of acceptance, the best thing said by any presidential candidate since Lincoln, was his statement expressing the hope that by giving every man a job, well paid, poverty may be made to disappear.

REPORTS FROM STOCK MARKETS

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—The copper stocks pushed to the front as the leaders in the upward movement at the beginning of trading today. Higher stocks, the motors and specialties in a more subdued and orderly market in which the volume of trading was somewhat below that of the same period yesterday and Tuesday.

A block of 22,000 shares of Anaconda sold at 74½, after which the stock advanced to the year's highest price of 75½, while American Smelting topped 250 and Kennecott sold at the highest price in its history. Trade bulletins report an enormous increase in the world consumption of the red metal and a gradual decline in the volume of stored copper, which is the logical preliminary to a boost in the price of the metal.

The United Cigar Stores and Schulte stocks moved upward to the accomplishment of new rumors of a consolidation or at least a closer working contact between the two companies. United reached a new high at 30 completing a gain of about five points since the change in the dividend status of the common stock.

AL SMITH MAY GET LABOR VOTE

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Aug. 30.—Delegates to the convention of the New York state federation of labor today will vote on the resolutions submitted by the resolutions committee. Among them a resolution pledging the "sincere and energetic" support of the state's organized labor to Gov. Alfred E. Smith, Democratic candidate for president.

Fifty-nine resolutions were included in the report submitted to the delegates yesterday. One of them urges the retention of the aldermanic form of city government and condemns the city management plan.

The resolution urging the support of Gov. Smith's campaign calls upon all wage earners, whether organized or not to stand behind the governor in the November election. In the resolution Gov. Smith is described as a "tested and proved champion of liberty, equality and justice for all people of our nation."

BUS HITS SIDE OF IRON BRIDGE

CALDWELL, O., Aug. 20.—Twenty passengers in a northbound Marietta, Caldwell, Cambridge bus narrowly escaped death here this morning when the huge vehicle crashed into a side railing of the bridge spanning Duck creek with such force as to send the entire steel structure crashing into the water 25 feet below. The bus was left hanging on the abutment.

The bus rocked, barely holding a balance, as the score of frantic men and women passengers climbed through the windows to safety.

It was said that the accident will result in a loss of some $10,000 to Noble county as a new bridge must be erected immediately, the bridge being a portion of U. S. highway 21. Most of the passengers on the bus were enroute to the Noble county fair, being held here this week, it was said.

NEW CHRYSLERS ARE POPULAR

Demands for New "75" and "65" Models are Heavy.

From the moment of their introduction seven weeks ago, public interest and enthusiasm over the new Chrysler cars—the "75," the "65" and the Plymouth—have run high, says J. W. Frazer, Chrysler and Plymouth sales manager. "Even Chrysler's past experience of warm-hearted welcome of earlier models contains nothing to approach the present demonstration of public favor," he declares.

"When the cars were put on display, sales rooms were immediately crowded with buyers enthusiastic over the new style that re-styled all motor cars," as the new Chrysler "75" and "65" lines and developments have been aptly termed—and the greatest dollar value in the lowest priced field," as represented by Plymouth.

"But even this earlier interest, unusual though it was in size and heartiness, was exceeded as a result of more and more of the new Chryslers making their appearance on the streets. There the strong contrast of their original and distinctive lines with ordinary body fashions every section of the country are reporting new July records made for deliveries, and the prospects of exceeding even these high marks for August. For instance, in Detroit—center of the industry—Chrysler out-registered in July all save two other makes—cars of much lower price than Chrysler. Nearly 1000 cars—a 25 per cent increase over the previous best—were registered.

"Dealers everywhere are reporting that their ability to deliver cars to owners is limited only by the factory's ability to supply cars. It is of interest, therefore, to Chrysler buyers as well as to dealers to learn that Chrysler has just set a new high record for production of 1,321 cars in one day—a feat made even more remarkable when it is realized that Chrysler cars are built to a standard that insists upon quality before mere numbers, and does not permit any car to be shipped which does not measure up fully to the inflexible demands of Chrysler standardized quality."

EXPECT ENROLLMENT OF OVER 1600 IN MIDLAND SCHOOLS NEXT TERM

Increase of Over 100 Expected by Superintendent H. V. Herlinger.

MIDLAND, Pa., Aug. 30. — From 1,600 to 1,700 pupils are expected to return to public schools and Midland's new parochial school when the fall term begins next Tuesday, according to enrollment estimates of Superintendent H. V. Herlinger.

Herlinger expects an increase of about 100 pupils above last year's enrollment. More children are expected to come here from outlying districts than last year.

RELIEF FROM CURSE OF CONSTIPATION

A Battle Creek physician says, "Constipation is responsible for more misery than any other cause."

But immediate relief has been found. A tablet called Rexall Orderlies has been discovered. This tablet attracts water from the system into the lazy, dry, evacuating bowel called the colon. The water loosens the dry food waste and causes a gentle, thorough, natural movement without forming a habit or ever increasing the dose.

Stop suffering from constipation. Chew a Rexall Orderlie at night. Next day bright. Get 24 for 25c today at the nearest Rexall Drug Store.

General teachers' meeting will be held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon, preceded by a conference of principals with Herlinger at 1 o'clock. Following the general meeting, each principal will meet with her teachers in individual schools.

Principal change to be effected in the public school system here this year is the merging of the junior high school with the senior high in Lincoln high school building. The new combined school will offer seventh, eighth, ninth, tenth, eleventh and twelfth grades.

As a result of the consolidation and the scheduled opening of the new Presentation parochial school in Penn avenue, no classes will be held this year in portable buildings, which have hitherto been used, according to announcement of the Midland school head.

All grades 1 to 5A, inclusive, will be held in the First street school. All pupils in the Seventh street school who are above the 5B class will be transferred to the Fourth street school.

Now opening hours are: First, bell, 8:30 a. m.; second bell, 8:40 a. m., and final bell, 8:45 a. m. for both grade schools and high school.

Opening of afternoon session in grade school will be at 1:15 p. m. with preliminary bells rung at 1 p. m. and 1:10 p. m. High school will open in the afternoon at 1 p. m. High school dismissal in the afternoon has been advanced from 4:30 to 4 o'clock. Commencing Tuesday, Carnegie li-

Most Amazing Guarantee Ever Made to Pile Sufferers

Because there are still thousands of men and women needlessly suffering the torture and discomfort of itching, bleeding, burning piles, Peterson of Buffalo asks every druggist to broadcast his remarkable offer.

He says—"Tell every one of your customers that it doesn't make any difference what they have tried before or what lack of success they have gotten from any internal or external remedy for piles—I want them to give Peterson's Ointment a fair trial. Tell them they make this trial at my expense for if the mighty healing power of my ointment doesn't stop itching and burning and dry up piles quicker and better than they ever hoped for—their money will be returned." # THINK BROTHERS DEAD IN MINE

Pair Missing Since Yesterday Were Exploring Workings.

CAMBRIDGE, O., Aug. 29.—Two brothers, Benjamin, 28, and William, 26, Kissenger, both of Cambridge, are believed today to have lost their lives in Old Orchard mine, located four miles east of here. The mine has been abandoned for 12 years and had long been an attraction for the men, according to their mother, Mrs. Eliza Kissenger, who told police last night that her sons had gone to explore the mine yesterday noon.

According to State Mine Inspector Jerome Watson, who with three deputy inspectors and S. W. Tobin, superintendent of the Cambridge Striping & Mining company, began a search today, it was "suicidal" to enter the mine unless equipped with masks, because of black damp.

No trace of the brothers had been found at noon today.

ROBBERS MAKE THREE HAULS

Jewelry Valued at $250,000 Stolen in New York.

NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—New York police today were investigating three daring jewel robberies in which pearls and diamonds valued at more than $250,000 were stolen.

Canvass of pawnshops here was being made in an effort to locate a $100,000 pearl necklace stolen from Mrs. Jerome Loucheim, wealthy Philadelphia at Saratoga Springs; $100,000 worth of uncut diamonds stolen from the automobile of a New York salesman in Philadelphia, and seventeen strings of pearls, valued at more than $50,000 taken from the showrooms of Jacques Blenheim and Co., jewelers.

Mrs. Loucheim reported that her necklace was stolen while she was in the Lido-Venice restaurant, at Saratoga, or on her way home. The necklace, she said, was composed of 130 pearls.

The diamonds were taken from the automobile of Frank Hardin, salesman for J. R. Wood and Sons, while it was parked in front of a jewelry store in Germantown avenue, Philadelphia. The daring robbery of the Blenheim establishment, though perpetrated on August 17, has just been reported to the police.

Because of the sale of antiquated radio equipment in past years, dealers in Mexico are now guaranteeing the outfits, and agreeing to keep them in condition after installation.

Cardinals, Safely Move Ahead By Half Game As Braves Smear Giants

Rookie Ben Cantwell Responsible for McGraw's Seventh Straight Loss; New Yorkers Trailing Cubs; Mackmen Win Again.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—The Cardinals, serenely aloof from the squabbling contenders for runner-up position in the National league race are today looking down from the comparatively safe position atop a six game lead upon the hair splitting jockeying of the Giants and the Cubs. The Chicagoans are ahead by a matter of .0003 points.

The half-game increase in the lead of the Cards does not represent any work on their part for their scheduled brush with the Cubs was rained off the list. It was the result of the Giant-Brave contest in which the New Yorkers took another on the chin, 8 to 3, to make it seven straight defeats and nine in the last eleven starts. Ben Cantwell, a rookie who tarried with the McGrawmen a few days last spring, pitched to them and made them like it. Against him were pitted four veterans, Aldridge, Fitzsimmons, Faulkner and Scott.

Although the Pirates have won more than twice as many games as the Phillies this season, the latter, with Claude Willoughby on the firing line shut out the Pittsburgh boys, 4 to 0. Willoughby's performance, during which he allowed but five hits, gave the idle Reds undisputed possession of fourth place.

In the younger league Connie Mack's boys gained a half-game on the hamstringing Yankees by trouncing the White Sox, 6 to 2. The Huguenots' margin is now down to two and a half games, the shortest since the teams settled down to the race. The win gave the A's four out of five for the series. Ted Lyons was the victim. He was allowed to stay the full game though he was hit safely a dozen times. George Walberg started for the Mackmen but, after he had made room for Ty Cobb at the plate in the fourth, he was replaced by Eddie Rommel. Where Walberg had been somewhat loose in his work, he was hit five times in four innings. Rommel pitched tight ball to hold the Sox hitless for the last five innings.

The Red Sox dropped their fourth of the five game series to the Browns, 4 to 3, in a close affair in which the Redlegs fell just short of evening things up in an eighth inning rally. George Burns found the left field fence of Navin field easy when he sent two homers out of the park to score three runs and help Joe Shantz, Indian left-hander, overcome the Tigers, 9 to 5.

Indians Take Second Tilt In Junior Series

One up on Squires Today in Title Contests.

Winning an 11 to 8 slugfest last night at Klondyke, the Indians are one-up on the Columbian Squires in the Junior league championship series now under way.

The Indians capped the opener but the Squires squared things up in the second. Today, however, they are trailing by one game and must win the fourth to stay in the five-game series.

Heddlston's hitting and the fielding of Banks, Cook and Wooley featured the play of the victors.

J. Wise, Gili and Walker performed well for the losers.

New York Girl Wins $10,000 Wrigley Swim

Ethel Hertel is Victor Over 53 Competitors.

TORONTO, Aug. 30.—Ethel Hertel, 20, of New York City, is $10,000 richer today as the result of her victory over fifty-three competitors in the ten-mile Wrigley swim for women here yesterday.

Miss Hertel's time of 5 hours 34 minutes 36 seconds was about three minutes better than that of her nearest rival, Olive Gatterdam, 16, of Seattle, Wash., who took second prize money of $3,000. Gertrude Ederle, the first woman to conquer the English channel, failed to come in on the money. She finished sixth. All five money prizes were taken by American women, who are eligible to enter the men's fifteen-mile marathon next week.

The first six in yesterday's swim finished as follows:

Ethel Hertel, New York, 5 hours 34 minutes 36 seconds.
Olive Gatterdam, Seattle, 5 hours 37 minutes.

Ruth Powers, Denver, 6 hours 3 minutes.
Jane Thoms, Terra Haute, Ind., 6 hours 12 minutes 45 seconds.

Mrs. Anna Benoit, Westfield, Mass., 6 hours 17 minutes 40 seconds.
Gertrude Ederle, New York, 6 hours 23 minutes 40 seconds.

Pirates' Poison Twins Still Pack Lethal Punch at Plate

Paul Waner and the Kid Brother, Lloyd, Not Responsible if Bucs Don't Win.

If the Pittsburgh Pirates should put on a spurt and cop the flag in the National league and that's not impossible even at this late date—a lot of the glory would undoubtedly go to the glory would undoubtedly go to "Big Poison" and "Little Poison."

The Poison Twins—Paul and Lloyd Waner are just as lethal as ever.

If any of you folks thought that touring the vaudeville circuit and tooting saxophones throughout the winter was going to soften the playing ability of the Waner boys you've probably already decided that their trip through the music halls of the country hasn't made any dent in the hitting powers of the two brothers who wear the uniform of the Buccaneers.

For several years now the name of Waner has spelled poison to a lot of pitchers who are called upon to oppose the Pirates. First it was Paul. He took over a berth as an outfielder in Pittsburgh and immediately started to sock out some good healthy hits. In the spring of 1927 Paul reported for work and was dragging along his kid brother, Lloyd, who was also looking for a job. He was tried out and made good as a regular and where before there was one Waner now there were two. The opposing pitchers had nicknamed Paul "Big Poison" and after serving 'em over the platter for awhile to young Lloyd they tabbed him "Little Poison"—and there you have it.

While the Pirates haven't been cutting up any very high class dices in the older circuit during this summer the Poison Twins have been going right along with their hitting and, with Grantham, they rank as the best batters on the Pirate ball club.

Last year Paul led the league in hitting with a total of 380, while Lloyd ranked third with 354. In the short world's series last fall Lloyd led all the Pirates with a batting average of .400 while Paul nipped the Yankee service for .333, Grantham finishing among the brothers with a score of .364. So the hitting of the Waners

Quits as Manager

James U. (Doc) Crandall, once member of New York Giants and recently manager and part-owner of Wichita (Western League) club, has resigned to become a pitcher again with the Sacramento team. He is past forty.

(International Newsweek)

can't be held responsible for the quick defeat of the Pittsburgh club.

This year they took up their work, despite the saxophone where they left off last fall and it wouldn't be at all surprising to see both of the Waners again finish among the five best hitters in the league.

Besides winning the batting honors in the league last year, Paul was also chosen as the most valuable player to his team by a committee of baseball writers. While a good many players entering the big show have to wait years for such a distinction—if they get it at all—the older of the Waner brothers achieved the honors in his second year of major league service.

Aside from their slugging ability the Waners are both stars in the outer garden. Baseball dopsters who make a specialty of listing the high spots during the season find plenty of use for the name of Waner. In one book, for instance, it is listed that just a year ago today the fielding of the Waner brothers featured the game at Boston and a year ago September 2, it is reported that the Waners made seven hits in a game won from St. Louis, 5 to 3. Kremer and Alexander being the opposing pitchers.

There have been a lot of brothers playing in the big leagues and the Waner brothers rank well up among the most famous.

What makes more noise than a pig under a fence? Two pigs.

What causes more trouble to a pitcher opposing the Pirates than a Waner? Two Waners.

And "Big Poison" and "Little Poison" will continue to be poisonous for some time to come.

Steelers Also Getting in Trim by Battling Foes in Crucible Loop; Win First.

SERVICE DEPARTMENT club of the Pittsburgh Crucible Steel league at Midland, is getting in shape for its impending series with the Wellsville club of the City league by battling the Open Hearths in a championship series.

The Servers, with Ondrich, their star flinker, on the mound, last night took the Furnacemen into camp by a count of 3 to 0, in the opening game, Ondrich turning in a four-hit slab performance.

The Servers and the Wellsville club, the latter defeated by Newell for the City league championship in a

RIVAL POLOISTS TO CLASH AGAIN

CLEVELAND, Aug. 30.—The Point Judith, R. I., polo team, which won the national interclub championship this year by defeating Fort Riley, Kan., in the finals, will meet the service men again Saturday.

This was assured today, Point Judith having won the right to enter the finals of the 12-goal handicap tournament by eliminating the Hunting Valley team, of Cleveland, yesterday afternoon. The score was 7 to 5.

In a match of the eight-goal tournament yesterday, San Mateo, Cal., defeated the Firestones, of Akron, 8 to 5.

AT COLUMBUS:—Pug Dunkle, 195, Columbus, and George Barsdale, 190, drew, (8).

Ed Hester, 146, Columbus, won on foul from Chink George, 147, Chillicothe, (5).

WELLSVILLE SET FOR MIDLAND SERIES

five-round battle which ended Tuesday when the West Virginians reached the wire first with a two-run margin, are planning a five-game series also.

The series should determine pretty well how City league and Midland league ball stack up this year, in comparison of class.

The first tilt of the Midland-Wellsville series will be staged Saturday afternoon at Wellsville, beginning at 4 o'clock.

The second contest will be held Sunday afternoon at Midland's Twelfth street lot, beginning at 3:30, local time.

Both managers will bolster up their squads some for the contests, principally in the pitching departments.

The strength of the Servers is demonstrated by the fact that they won the first half of the Midland season and then proceeded to cop the second half. The Open Hearths, by coincidence, finished in second place in both halves.

The Servers scored one run in the second, their second in the third and their final tally in the fourth.

Sundae started the run making by beating out an infield hit. He on Chaffin's sacrifice, and trotted plateward on Nobers' triple to left.

Nobers, getting his second hit of the game, singled in the fourth, stole second and third and scored on Crandall's wild heave over first.

Rudd, second sacker for the Servers, robbed B. Mackall of a hit in the sixth when he raced into short right for a fly and doubled Wilson off first.

STUDEBAKER President Eight

30,000 miles in 26,326 minutes!

Greatest endurance record in history of transportation

BETWEEN July 21 and August 9, four Studebaker President Eights—all fully equipped, regular factory production cars—triumphed over the severest test ever given any automobile. This 30,000 mile run—a record distance achieved in record time—was conducted under the close and constant supervision of the American Automobile Association which certified each car to be a strictly stock model. In fact, all four motors and chassis were selected, not by Studebaker, but by A. A. A. officials who picked them at random from the assembly line at the Studebaker factory. If not chosen for this test, these regular factory Presidents would have gone out to dealers and you might have bought one of them at any Studebaker showroom.

Average 68 miles per hour

All four Studebakers—two President Eight roadsters and two President Eight sedans—completed 30,000 miles each at better than mile-a-minute speed.

Both roadsters completed 30,000 miles in less than 27,000 minutes, averaging better than 68 miles per hour for 19 days and 18 nights of continuous driving.

The two sedans averaged 63.99 and 64.15 miles per hour respectively for this tremendous distance.

The fastest thousand miles of each roadster was the thirtieth—71.67 and 69.65 miles per hour! Studebaker Presidents improve with use.

Engines sealed
Of 6 seals placed on the engines of these roadsters

by American Automobile Association officials, not a single seal was broken during the 60,000 miles of running. These official seals were placed on the manifold, engine head and carburetor of each car.

Studebaker's new and exclusive ball bearing spring shackles went through the entire 120,000 miles of running without a single adjustment, without the addition of any lubricant, and were functioning perfectly at the end of the run.

What it proves

The Studebaker President's new record of 30,000 miles in 26,326 minutes is a feat unapproached in the history of transportation. It proves beyond doubt or question that The President Eight is an expression of engineering genius without peer in the automotive world. It is evidence of the inexhaustible resources of Studebaker performance—of high quality materials, precision manufacture, skilled workmanship and rigid inspections.

Why be satisfied with less?

You can pay more than Studebaker prices, but in no other car at any price can you buy more stamina or more finely balanced performance than in Studebaker's President Eight. And back of every One-Profit Studebaker is 76 years of manufacturing integrity. Don't wait until November 6 to select your President—DO IT NOW!

Turk Nash, Katies Line Up Forces For Third Battle Tonight

Both Add Strength For Final Series Contests

Deshler on Mound for Motors; Either Digman or Stoffell Will Draw Mound Assignment for Potters.

Turk Nash and K. T. K., engaged in a five game series for city baseball supremacy, a series that has been interrupted by rain and other contingencies, will resume hostilities with a bang tonight at Columbian park. The contest, which will be the third of the series, will start at 5:30 o'clock.

Both lineups will be more or less changed for the series as the rival managers endeavor to boost their hitting and fielding strength.

That they have succeeded pretty well in doing this is evident in the tentative lineups announced by Fowler of Turk Nash and McCoy of the Katies.

In all likelihood, Sonny Deshler, who has won one and lost one to date, will smoke 'em down the alley for the Motors.

On the slab for the Motors' foes will be found either Don Stoffell or Digman, the latter coming from the Homer Laughlin club. McCoy was uncertain today as to which would be used.

As things size up prior to game time, the Turk Nash outfield coterie will probably consist of McConnell, Godwin, Aufderheide, Cebula and Christy. It is practically certain that McConnell will be found in middle. Both McConnell and Cebula are members of the Chester club and both played in the Midland circuit this season.

Johnny Watson will hold down the hot corner for the Motors, with Les McMath at short and Tommy Sayers at second.

"Chappie" Finley, Laughlin infield star, will probably be located at third for K. T. K. during the remaining games of the series, with Billy Watson, another Laughlin player, in the outfield.

Claire Coleman will go to shortstop, with Eddie Bayley on second.

First base is a trifle indefinite on both sides. Bill Merchant of Laughlin and Schultz of the Madison Billiards are potential candidates. Which will be with which, though, will not be determined until managers get together tonight. Then there are Jack O'Brosky and Heckathorne. Jack, Andy O'Brosky and Hall are also K. T. K. outfield candidates.

Ted Hunselman will do the receiving for the Motors while "Chuck" Kinsey will be behind the bat for the Katies.

Yankee Links Are Too Heavy For Britons

British Walker Cup Team Find Courses Difficult.

CHICAGO, Aug. 30.—American golf courses are kept too wet, the turf is too heavy and the greens are too hard and firm to exactly suit British golfers.

This is the opinion of golfers from the British Isles, who, as members of the British Walker cup team, have just completed a visit in the United States.

Bobo-link course at Highland park, Ill., scene of this year's Western amateur, where the British played for a week before the Walker matches at the Chicago Golf club, Wheaton, Ill., was pronounced "an extremely beautiful course by the Britons, although they found it difficult to play."

English Turf Lighter.

"In England golf courses are not artificially watered as they are in this country," Dr. William Tweddell, captain of the invading golfers, explained. "At Bobo-link and other American courses watering keeps the turf very heavy. Tee shots get little roll and on the greens one finds he may shoot right to the pin. In England we have lighter turf and at the greens we have lighter turf, letting them roll a little, instead of trying to shoot right to the pin. In America at the start we had some trouble but when we got the confidence necessary to try to get right up on the greens and once on the greens to shoot direct for the pin and not trickle, we were all right."

American methods and innovations in golf are closely watched in England, the visitors said, and because of the intense admiration in the Isles for Bobby Jones of Atlanta, Georgia.

Wore Knickers.

Tom Perkins, the 23-year-old British amateur champion who played with the Walker cup team here, was mistaken for an American very often. He wears the bright raiment of Yankee players and often does not play with the blazer or jacket, which is considered a golf dress essential by most Englishmen.

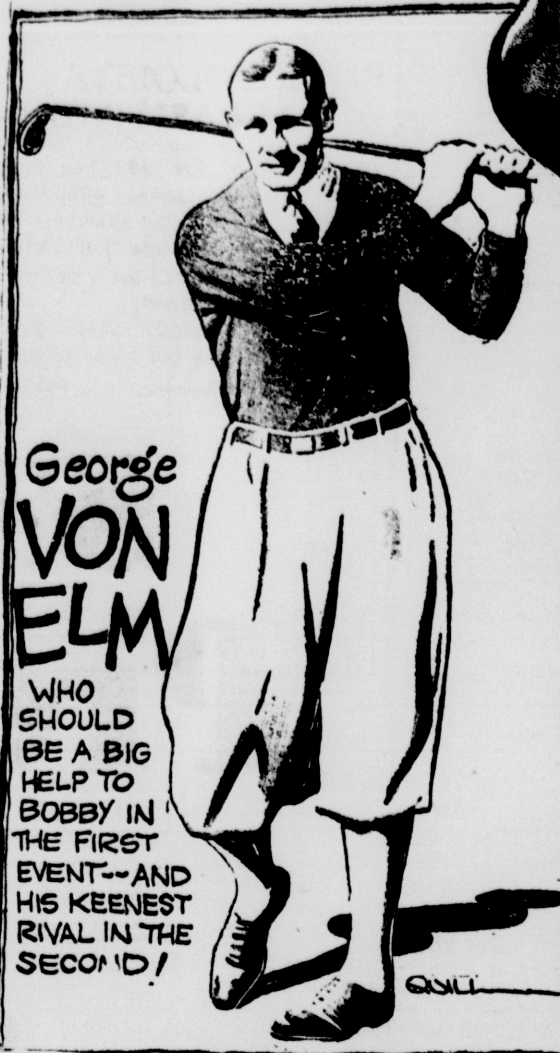

None of the visiting players wore the old-fashioned long gray trousers but played in the American style of knickers, although most of the Britons insisted on wearing jackets.

Depositors in the Post Office Savings Bank of England may soon be permitted to draw checks against their accounts.

FRIENDLY ENEMIES

BOBBY JONES.

WHO LEADS THE WALKER CUP TEAM AGAINST BRITAIN AT CHICAGO TODAY AND NEXT WEEK. DEFENDS HIS AMATEUR CROWN AT BRAE BURN.

George VON ELM WHO SHOULD BE A BIG HELP TO BOBBY IN THE FIRST EVENT—AND HIS KEENEST RIVAL IN THE SECOND!

WHEN America's Walker Cup team goes into play today at the Chicago Golf Club against the invaders from Great Britain, Bobby Jones and George von Elm will be two outstanding members of Uncle Sam's aggregation. They will be playing shoulder to shoulder to retain the international trophy.

Shortly after the close of this match, which is scheduled to end Saturday, Jones will tee off to defend his amateur crown at Brae Burn, Boston, and von Elm will be one of the keenest rivals for the honor.

Such is golf. Allies one day and friendly enemies the next. These Walker Cup matches, by the way, are refreshingly sporty. They always create a spirit of good fellowship rather than bitter rivalry. The customer appeal to golf is not far reaching despite the fact that the size of the galleries has increased during the past few years. However, the gates to golf matches probably never will become exceptionally large and especially is this true of an amateur affair such as the Walker Cup events.

Golfers entered in this event really enjoy playing and let's hope that the shadow of commercialism never lowers over the greens to such an extent that it will wholly eliminate this feeling.

The Walker matches are held every two years and a governing body with foresight ordained that the field of battle be alternated for each match, regardless of which team was victorious. This makes a trip over the pond necessary only once every four years and tends to keep the interest alive despite defeat.

This year Bobby Jones will captain the U. S. team and with a list of team-mates which include such well known figures as Jess Sweetser, George von Elm, Charles Evans, Jr., Francis Ouimet, Harrison Johnston and others of equal ability, your Uncle Samuel seems ably set to retain the old pewter mug.

Jones should prove the class of the matches in Chicago, but Sweetser, who was forced out of regular play by long illness, is said to have retained his punch and his rawhide stamina and the ability of von Elm, Evans, Ouimet and the others must be respected.

Among the invading Britons who will cross decks with the U. S. experts it would appear that Philip Perkins is the one to be most feared. Perkins is heralded as a fighting match player of the Harold Hilton type who will carry the battle to the home boys in their own back yard. Perkins has a bag full of crack shots and is being well three sheeted as a star. Dr. William Tweddell, present English closed amateur title holder, is an able second to Perkins and is said to possess a swing not unlike that of our own Atlantan, Jones the Great.

Eustace Storey, with his trick Chaplin mustache, and "Tatty" Torrence also are listed among the invading crew and with their colleagues they should make up an aggregation which might upset the dope and the well known bean container. The Englishmen who are over to take part in the Walker Cup matches also will try their luck early next week in the national amateur golf championships at Brae Burn, and here, too, they may be heard from despite the fact that it is difficult to imagine looking beyond Jones or von Elm for the Brae Burn winner.

However, golf has a way of repudiating standards of form and this may be one time that it will happen to do just that.

The results in Chicago will give a good line on what is to be expected at Brae Burn.

Mystery at Styles

A Mystery Serial That Defies Solution

BY AGATHA CHRISTIE

"But this, as we know, is what happened. Mrs. Inglethorp reads it, and becomes aware of the perfidy of her husband and Evelyn Howard, though, unfortunately, the sentence about the cromides conveys no warning to her mind. She knows that she is in danger—but is ignorant of where the danger lies.

"She decides to say nothing to her husband, but sits down and writes to her solicitor, asking him to come on the morrow, and she also determines to destroy immediately the will which she has just made. She keeps the fatal letter."

"It was to recover that letter, then, that her husband forced the lock of the despatch-case?"

"Yes, and from the enormous risk he ran we can see how fully he realized its importance. That letter excepted, there was absolutely nothing to connect him with the crime."

"There's only one thing I can't make out, why didn't he destroy it at once when he got hold of it?"

"Because he did not dare take the biggest risk of all—that of keeping it on his own person."

"I don't understand."

"Look at it from his point of view. I have discovered that there were only five short minutes in which he could have taken it—the five minutes immediately before our own arrival on the scene, for before that time Annie was brushing the stairs, and would have seen anyone who passed going to the right wing. Figure to yourself the scene! He enters the room, unlocking the door by means of one of the other doorkeys—they were all much alike. He hurries to the despatch-case—it is locked, and the keys are nowhere to be seen.

That is a terrible blow to him, for it means that his presence in the room cannot be concealed as he had hoped. But he sees clearly that everything must be risked for the sake of that damning piece of evidence. Quickly, he forces the lock with a penknife, and turns over the papers until he finds what he is looking for.

"But now a fresh dilemma arises; he dare not keep that piece of paper on him. He may be seen leaving the room—he may be searched. If the paper is found on him, it is certain doom. Probably, at this minute, too, he hears the sounds below of Mr. Wells and John leaving the boudoir. He must act quickly. Where can he hide this terrible slip of paper? The contents of the waste-paper-basket are kept and in any case, are sure to be examined. There are no means of destroying it; and he dare not keep it. He looks round, and he sees—what do you think, mon ami?"

I shook my head.

"In a moment he has torn the letter into long thin strips, and rolling them up into spools he thrusts them hurriedly amongst the other spools in the vase on the mantelpiece."

I uttered an exclamation. "No one would think of looking there," Poirot continued. "And he will be able, at his leisure, to come back and destroy this solitary piece of evidence against him."

"Then, all the time, it was in the spill vase in Mrs. Inglethorp's bedroom, under our very noses?" I cried.

Poirot nodded. "Yes, my friend. That is where I discovered my 'last link,' and I owe that very fortunate discovery to you."

"To me?"

"Yes. Do you remember telling me that my hand shook as I was straightening the ornaments on the mantelpiece?"

"Yes, but I don't see—"

"No, but I saw. Do you know, my friend, I remembered that earlier in the morning, when we had been together, I had straightened all the objects on the mantelpiece. And, if they were already straightened, there would be no need to straighten them again, unless, in the meantime, some one else had touched them."

"Dear me," I murmured, "so that is the explanation of your extraordinary behaviour. You rushed down to Styles, and found it still there?"

"Yes, and it was a race for time."

"But I still can't understand why Inglethorp was such a fool as to leave it there when he had plenty of opportunity to destroy it."

"Ah, but he had no opportunity. I saw to that."

"You?"

"Yes. Do you remember reproving me for taking the household into my confidence on the subject?"

"Yes."

"Well, my friend, I saw there was just one chance. I was not sure then if Inglethorp was the criminal or not, but if he was I reasoned that he would not have the paper on him, but would have hidden it somewhere, and by enlisting the sympathy of the household I could effectually prevent his destroying it."

"He was already under suspicion, and by making the matter public I secured the services of about ten amateur detectives, who would be watching him unceasingly, and being himself aware of their watchfulness he would not dare seek further to destroy the document. He was therefore forced to depart from the house, leaving it in the spill vase."

"But surely Miss Howard had ample opportunities of aiding him?"

"Yes, but Miss Howard did not know of the paper's existence. In accordance with their pre-arranged plan, she never spoke to Alfred Inglethorp. They were supposed to be deadly enemies, and until John Cavendish was safely convicted they neither of them dared risk a meeting. Of course I had a watch kept on Mr. Inglethorp, hoping that sooner or later he would lead me to the hiding-place. But he was too clever to take any chances."

"The paper was safe where it was; since no one had thought of looking there in the first week. It was not likely they would do so afterwards. But for your lucky remark, we might never have been able to bring him to justice."

"I understand that now; but when did you first begin to suspect Miss Howard?"

"When I discovered that she had told a lie at the inquest about the letter she had received from Mrs. Inglethorp."

"Why, what was there to lie about?"

"You saw that letter? Do you recall its general appearance?"

"Yes—more or less."

"You will recollect, then, that Mrs. Inglethorp wrote a very distinctive hand, and left large clear spaces between her words. But if you look at the date at the top of the letter you will notice that 'July 17th' is quite different in this respect. Do you see what I mean?"

"No," I confessed, "I don't."

"You do not see that that letter was not written on the 17th, but on the 7th—the day after Miss Howard's departure? The '7' was written in before the '1' to turn it into the '17th'."

"But why?"

"That is exactly what I asked myself. Why does Miss Howard suppress the letter written on the 17th, and produce this faked one instead? Because she did not wish to show the letter of the 17th. Why, again? And at once a suspicion dawned in my mind. You will remember my saying that it was wise to beware of people who were not telling you the truth."

"And yet," I cried indignantly, "after that, you gave me two reasons why Miss Howard could not have committed the crime?"

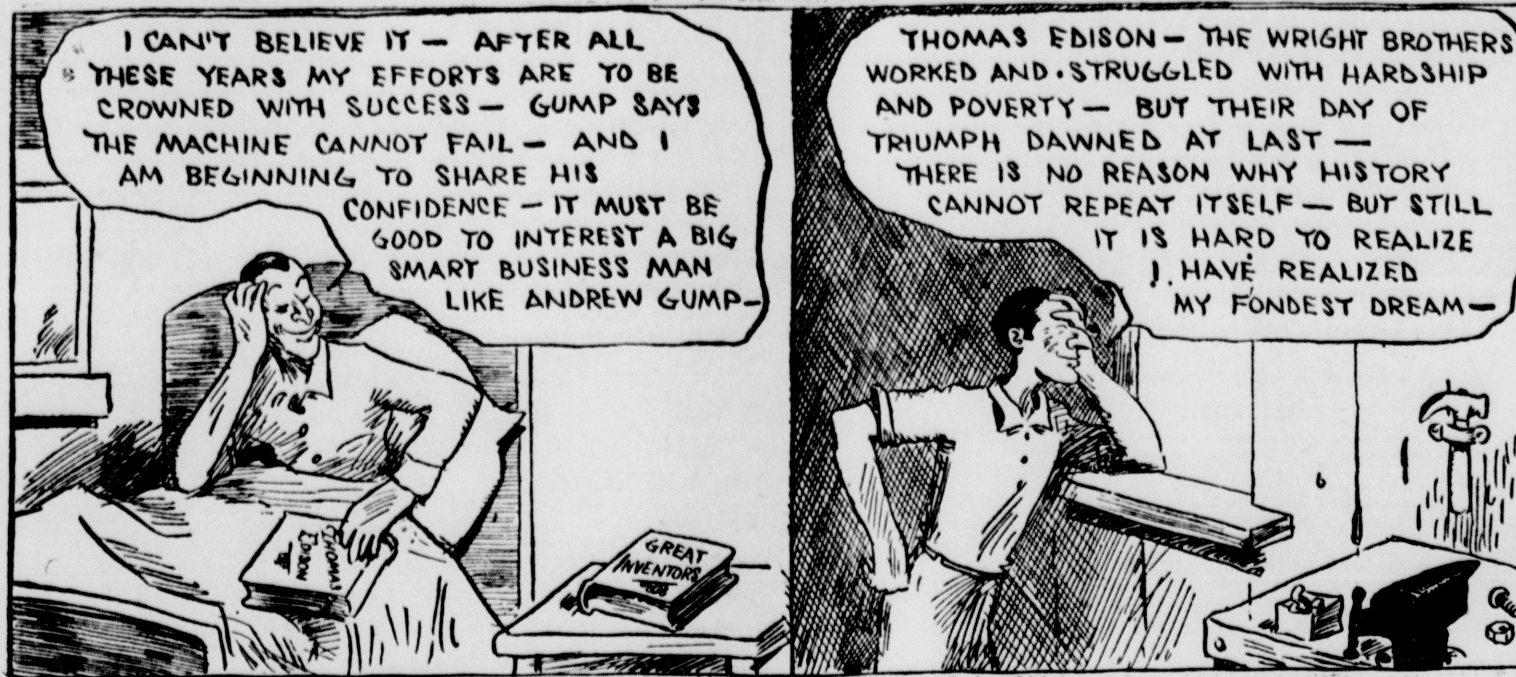

"I find very good reasons too," replied Poirot. "For a long time they were a stumbling-block to me until I remembered a very significant fact: that she and Alfred Inglethorp were consins. She could not have committed the crime single-handed, but the reasons against that did not debar her from being an accomplice."

"And, then, there was that rather over-vehement hatred of hers! It concealed a very opposite emotion. There was, undoubtedly, a tie of passion between them long before he came to Styles. They had already arranged their infamous plot—that he should marry this rich, but rather foolish old lady, and then gain their ends by a very cleverly conceived crime. If all had gone as they planned, they would probably have left England, and lived together on their poor victim's money."

"They are a very astute and unscrupulous pair."

a height of 200 feet. Lieut. Chase's plane and two others were flying in formation at a low altitude when, according to the other pilots, they struck bumpy air. The other two planes were able to get through the "bumpy" region, while Chase cracked up before he could regain control of the craft.

The Fort Steuben bridge, a new link in the east-west highway, was dedicated to residents of the Steubenville and Weirton districts by the owners of the span, the Steubenville-Weirton Bridge company and the Dravo Contracting company of Pittsburgh.

Thousands attended the dedication ceremony. Mayor Oliver R. Conley, of Steubenville, and Walter C. Stirling, service director, officially opened the program at noon when they played hosts at luncheons in the Fort Steuben hotel to mayors of 15 surrounding towns and six highway officials of Ohio and West Virginia. At the same time Ralph M. Dravo, vice president of the Dravo Contracting company, and W. E. Fowler, secretary of the company, entertained at dinner 75 business men of Pittsburgh, Steubenville and Weirton.

Ceremonies at the bridge were brief. Congressman Frank Murphy gave a short address in which he stressed the importance and the need of the span. Another speaker was Myers Y. Cooper, Republican candidate for governor.

A ribbon, the breaking of which started traffic over the span, was cut by "Miss West Virginia," Miss Helen Cattrell, of Hollidays Cove, and "Miss Ohio," Miss Margaret Collins, of Steubenville.

CROP REPORT IS COMPILED

The potato crop of the five Panhandle counties will be the best for a number of years, the present reports show. The present average of the crop is 87 per cent in comparison with the five year average of 75 per cent, which takes in from 1923 to 1927 inclusive.
